"TOWN HALL TONIGHT"
#8 "Fight & Win" Series
Featuring Jack Dempsey

Tiger O'Day's manager goes broke while playing the stock market. This forces the Tiger to go into a vaudeville skit with a man who has been pestering him. He hires Babe Collins, the girl at the desk in the hotel, as his leading lady. The house detective is in love with her and goes to his twin brother to frame something on the Tiger in his vaudeville act. The show opens and the Tiger's manager and his trainer put on their act. Then George Hartley, who put on the show, comes out and offers $500. to any man who can stay five rounds with the Champion. The house detective, his twin brother, come up to the stage and offer to fight the champion. Hartley refuses but the sheriff forces them to let him fight. The two brothers get into tights and are ready to change places in the ring as one of his pals turns out the lights. They do this a few times until the Tiger's manager gets wise. He tells the Tiger to follow his instructions and then goes to the switch and catches the detective's accomplice putting the lights out. He beats him up and puts the lights on. The Tiger is seen sitting on one of the brothers while the other is standing in the ring ready to fight. The Tiger beats them both up and kicks them out.
